

MARLAR'S Compound CASCARA
Tablets with Senna. A torpic laxative, not attended with the unpleasant effect of most laxatives. Twenty-five cents a box.

MARLAR DRUG STORE

Phone 24

Free Delivery

Local Brevities

Love Bird fancy work—Racket Store.

J. E. Collis, the automobile man went to Phoenix Saturday.

Mrs. Payne and children left last Saturday for Los Angeles.

O. F. Beutke, of Phoenix, was an arrival in Flagstaff Sunday.

Mrs. Eben Greenlaw went to Kingman last Friday to join her husband.

W. S. Heard, proprietor of the Ideal, went to San Bernardino Monday.

F. E. Brooks and wife left Monday morning for Los Angeles on a short stay.

F. W. Haynes, of the state engineer's office, was in Flagstaff last week.

Al Sanford, the cattleman, went to his headquarters ranch at Seligman Saturday.

W. W. Durham and wife returned last week from a couple month's stay in Los Angeles.

W. N. Staley returned last week from a three month's visit to relatives in San Francisco.

L. A. Cross left Sunday for Murietta Hot Springs to get rid of an accumulation of rheumatism.

Al Beasley returned to Phoenix Monday. He was up north just long enough to take in the snow storm.

Ed Howell, the cattleman of Navajo, spent a few days here the first of the week with his wife and daughter.

Mrs. Patrick, of Phoenix, formerly a resident of this city arrived in Flagstaff Saturday on a visit to old friends.

A. J. LeBarron went to Phoenix Saturday to look after his sheep on winter range and to prepare for moving them north.

Walter Martin and family returned last week from their ranch on the Verde and Walter is again on tap at the Finleyized store.

R. E. Gizzard and "Kentuck" Marshall, two U. S. revenue agents of Phoenix, were in the city last week on their regular rounds.

Will Marlar is having a neat little bungalow built on west Birch street. This will make three residences that he owns in that block.

J. S. Amundsen, formerly of Williams, now manager of the Arizona Stores company with headquarters at Kingman, was in the city Monday.

Mr. W. A. Ferrell, a brother of Milt Ferrell came in via the Verde last week from California by team. He expects to make this his home hereafter.

WALNUTS! Three pounds for 50c, six and one half pounds for $1.00. All you want at this price AS LONG AS THEY LAST. Next Wednesday.—BABBITT BROTHERS.

The small bridge on the east road near the Coconino Dairy was washed out last week Thursday by the flood of water and melting snows coming down from Elden Mountain. The abutment walls gave way, but were temporary repaired the following day.

New lace at the Racket Store.

Rev. J. W. Epperley was in Winslow Sunday.

Walter Finney of Williams, was in the city Tuesday.

Bob Sargent and Lee Doyle were in Williams yesterday.

Dr. J. J. McLoone, a specialist of Phoenix, was in Flagstaff Wednesday on special business.

Mr. S. L. Finley and little son left last Thursday for Kansas city on an extended buying trip. He will visit other eastern cities before he returns.

C. F. Huppe and wife of Winslow, arrived in Flagstaff Friday. Mr. Huppe will relieve operator C. R. Webb who has been transferred to Canyon Diablo as operator.

Miss Lena Hoghe, assistant clerk for the board of supervisors of Maricopa county, came up from Phoenix last Sunday evening to remain a few days with her father.

WALNUTS! Three pounds for 50c, six and one half pounds for $1.00. All you want at this price AS LONG AS THEY LAST. Next Wednesday.—BABBITT BROTHERS.

The friends of Charles R. Boyle will be surprised to learn of his death at Breshar, Mo., sometime last fall. He was a stone mason by trade and owner of the G. A. R. hall.

Gus Reimer, one of the pioneer sheepmen of Northern Arizona now retired, was in Flagstaff Monday from Williams and was among a group of old friends most of the time he was here.

Mr. D. A. Gilchrist, the expert prairie dog destroyer of the U. S. Biological survey, arrived in Flagstaff this week from the east and will commence operations against the ranchers' pest again this summer.

W. H. Power, county engineer, went to Grand Canyon Saturday to examine the needed work on the road along the rim from Grandview to El Tovar in order to lay plans for the coming years work on county roads.

Frank Bennett is willing to prove by witnesses that he has a hen that laid two eggs within 60 seconds one day last week. Frank has a very good reputation for veracity and will show you the hen and eggs if you don't believe it.

Mrs. Stephen Janus and Mrs. W. S. Beard and little son Jimmy, came in from Tuba last Friday. Mrs. Janus has been with her mother Mrs. Stuart who had been ill and was on her way home to Leupp. Mrs. Beard visited with her mother Mrs. L. M. Breen for a few days.

C. D. "Fat" Rogers, representative of the transcontinental freight bureau is back on the job again after a couple months strenuous search for gold in his mine, down near Beardsley. In his earnest, persistent search for gold he lost considerable clothes filler, but the loss thus accumulated is now made up in weight with small chunks of ore he carries around in his pockets as evidence that the dent he made in the ground was worthy of the effort. He seemed well pleased to get back on the right of way again.

Royal Society crochet books.—Racket Store.

L. J. Button, of Williams, was in Flagstaff Monday.

Mrs. B. C. Black left Tuesday for Seligman to join her husband.

J. H. Fuller and John Lazear of Winslow, were in Flagstaff on business Monday.

H. G. Mosley, representing the McNeil Printing Co., of Phoenix, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Gertrude L. Gates of Oak Creek came up from her ranch the first of the week.

Earl Mahan, the Western Union battery man, was in the city Wednesday from Phoenix.

O. L. Hart, president of the White River Land and Cattle company, went to Phoenix last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Denny Hibben and little daughter of Winslow, were visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. J. L. Daugherty left Wednesday for Los Angeles where she will visit friends for sometime.

Dr. R. H. H. Blome left Tuesday evening for Phoenix on business connected with the big Normal school.

Mrs. J. W. Armond of Phoenix, is visiting her daughter Mrs. E. H. Wheat and her new grand daughter.

Mrs. F. C. Curtis and mother, Mrs. Hicks, left yesterday for San Bernardino for the benefit of Mrs. Hick's health.

The W. T. C. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. J. E. Jones Tuesday, April 4th, at 3 p. m.—Mrs. Milligan, Secretary.

Try the New York Store for shoes; prices cut on all shoes this week. Our prices are going down on all goods instead of up.

F. Maynard has returned to Flagstaff from Bellemont where he has been pumping water for the Santa Fe during the winter.

Mrs. J. C. Raub of Phoenix, was entertained by Flagstaff friends the first of the week. She returned to Phoenix yesterday.

W. L. Benham, formerly a forest ranger near a prosperous rancher near Williams, was in the city Tuesday on a short business trip.

J. R. McDonald went to Winslow Tuesday where he has hopes of landing a position in the mechanical department of the Santa Fe.

Sam Douglas returned from Los Angeles Monday. Sam has good shoes and claims to have returned on a regular passenger train.

E. H. Wheat is a greatly pleased "papa" since the arrival of new and precious little grain of Wheat at his home Monday morning. It's a girl.

WALNUTS! Three pounds for 50c, six and one half pounds for $1.00. All you want at this price AS LONG AS THEY LAST. Next Wednesday.—BABBITT BROTHERS.

Dr. J. M. Bradley with his brother Father Bradley of St. Louis, were in Flagstaff Tuesday the guests of Dr. R. O. Raymond. During their stay they took a trip to Sunset Mountain.

J. R. Norton, the veteran cattle buyer, was in Flagstaff Wednesday from Phoenix contracting for cattle. He says he succeeded in securing several thousand head for spring and fall delivery.

Mrs. Etta Gifford Young, formerly one of the brilliant writers of the state and associate editor of the Arizona Magazine has been in Flagstaff this week demonstrating the quality of the M. J. B. famous Coffee, also demonstrating her ability as an advertising expert with few superiors.

Lou Thomas came up from Oak Creek Wednesday on foot. It was his first out since the heavy snow storms. Mr. Thomas says there was five feet of snow in the canyon but the only damage was a partial cave in of his barn. They rather expected a heavy flood in Oak Creek, but with all the melting snow it did not reach the old high water mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hensing entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Howell of Navajo Saturday night with a dutch lunch and dance. There were fourteen couples present, with weiners and music galore. The program for the evening was left to those present, and 25 numbers were selected for dances and 7 numbers for songs. That the entertainment was entertaining was evidenced by the length of time the guests lingered.

MISCELLANEOUS ADS

Boarders Wanted—Rates reasonable. Phone 208W.

Public Messenger—Chester Mills. Let me do your errands. Phone 240.

Found—Catholic cross, owner may have same by paying for this notice. Apply Sun office.

Lost—Small German silver mesh bag. Return to Elizabeth May, Confection Bakery and receive reward.

Lost—Black silk umbrella, horn handle with initials "E. S. M." on silver band. Return to Dr. E. S. Miller and receive reward.

Rhode Island Chicks 13½c; White Leghorns 9c each. Safe delivery guaranteed. Circular free. R. C. Herald, R. 3, Phoenix, Arizona.

Wanted—Position as housekeeper on ranch by widow unincumbered, age 35. Domestic science teacher. Apply care Coconino Sun.

Furniture repairing of all kinds.—Please don't throw away your old chairs—give them to me, I can use them. J. W. (Dad) Power.

Situation Wanted—By Spanish man on cattle, sheep or farm ranch; want home for family with job; best of recommendations. Apply care of Coconino Sun.

Parties wishing horses from Callo-way's can get them about April 1st, as we will drive up work stock then; last drive May 1st.

A. W. KINSEY, Box 54.

Hatching Eggs and Chix from thorbred "Hoganized" White Leghorns—heavy laying hens. Write for prices and free mating list. Palmolive Poultry ranch, Box 107 Glendale, Arizona.

FOR RENT

House for Rent—Furnished rooms. Mrs. Gavin.

For Rent—4 room brick house, good location. Apply Gus Sauer.

For Rent—Furnished housekeeping rooms, 616 N. Beaver street.

For Rent—Three room furnished cottage, west of Adventist church. Apply to Mrs. A. Thorner.

For Rent—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Apply at Mrs. B. England.

For Rent—150 acre ranch in Black Bill Park, seventy acres under cultivation, all under fence. Apply to Benj. Doney for terms.

For Rent—Nine room house furnished, close in, modern conveniences, also good barn. Apply to J. L. Dougherty.

To Lease—Completely furnished bungalow, four rooms and bath, also large sleeping porch. 609 N. Beaver street, Phone 123R2.

For Rent—3-roomed flat, ground floor, bath, range, electricity, north San Francisco street. Apply to Mrs. J. T. Snoeberger. References requested.

Bargain to Printers—A perfectly good Sterling hand punching machine with round corner die and needle punch attachments. Good as new. Also a smaller hand punch new, will sell cheap. Apply Sun, Flagstaff.

FOR SALE

For Sale—Four room house, best location, easy terms. See W. S. Brown.

For Sale—Work team, harness and wagon, good outfit. Apply to Arthur Anderson.

For Sale—Seven second hand sewing machines, good as new.—Ralph Davis, Weatherford hotel.

Singer Sewing Machines for sale or rent. S. Barron, Merchant Tailor. tf

For Sale

Turkey, duck, geese and Black Minorca eggs for setting all during season. Hatch guaranteed. Also turkeys for breeding purposes, mammoth bronze. Address, MRS. H. A. PERKINS, Winslow, Arizona.

T. A. RIORDAN, President M. J. RIORDAN, Secre
I. B. KOCH, Vice-Pres., Manager

ARIZONA

Lumber & Timber Company

MANUFACTURERS OF

Native Pine Lumber, Props, Stulls,

Piling, Ties, Lagging, Boxes,
Lath, Shingles, Sash
and Doors

FLAGSTAFF

ARIZONA

Empress Theatre

A modern theatre in every respect. Presenting the Best in Photographs. Seating capacity 350. Phone 154. Seats reserved in advance for any production. Box office open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Phone orders received 23 hours daily. Performance nightly, show starts 8 p. m. J. J. COSTIGAN, Prop.

FRIDAY NIGHT (To-night)

Nashville Students Minstrel Show

Seven Entertainers Adults 50c, Children 25c

SATURDAY MATINEE AND NIGHT

Charlie Chaplin in "Work"

a two reel Essanay feature, also a Vitagraph two reel feature

"HIS GOLDEN GRAIN"
Matinee Prices Adults 10c, children 5c, matinee at 3 p. m. Night prices 10, 15 and 25c

SUNDAY NIGHT

Clara Kimball Young in "Trilby"

Prices 10, 15 and 25c

Something Special in Shade Trees

Those shade trees you intended to set out but forgot to order will soon be here. I have about 100 nice poplars extra, from 8 to 10 feet high, which will be offered for sale at the Special Price of 60c each in lots of 5 or more. Orders already taken at $1 will be filled at the 60c rate. If your order is not already in, see me soon or send me word and have some reserved.

O. H. Richardson

Try "Clothcraft" for this Summer's Wear

Our Spring and Summer suits are here and we invite your inspection of our famous Clothcraft Clothes in the best shades and weaves of the season. For a medium priced suit that will give unlimited satisfaction, we suggest that you give Clothcraft a trial.

Special for Today and April 1st and 2nd—The special representative of the Storrs-Schaefer Company, high-class tailors of Cincinnati, Ohio, will be here Friday (today), Saturday and Sunday for the purpose of showing every desirable new effect in the season's fabrics. He will be glad to take your measure while here. The Dresswell Shop

The New Cash Store

All Goods New and Fresh F. E. Brooks, Prop.

OUR BARGAINS FOR 10 DAYS

Red Fox Coffee 5 lb. for $1.00

Reid-Murdock Canned Sweet

Potatoes 15c per can

Ranges, large and small, also sheet iron stoves.

Rakes, Hoes, Shovels, etc. for Spring Gardening

The One Store Where Quality Meets Price

Phone 81

Prompt Delivery